GOOD THINGS AND BISHOP AND MRS. ROBERT T. BURTON CELEBRATE THEIR DIAMOND WEDDING

Bishop R. T. Burton.

Mrs. Maria S. H. Burton.

A number of children and grandchildren of Bishop and Mrs. Robert T. Burton gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

I. S. Hills last evening to celebrate the diamond wedding anniversary of the venerable pair. Dec. 18, 1845, Maria S. Haven and Robert T. Burton were married in Nauvoo, and later they came to Salt Lake to make their home. The affair last evening in celebration of the event was attended by about fifty of their desendants.

The reunion was planned without the knowledge of Mr. and Mrs. Burton, who was attended by about fifty of their desendants.

The reunion was planned without the knowledge of Mr. and Mrs. Burton was attended by surprise on fielding their friends gathered to honor the completion of their sixtleth year of wedded life. A bridal party was formed and the couple were excerted to an altarbuilt of flowers and bunting, in which the wedding ceremony was again performed and congratulations or the occasion were offered. Dinner as then served, at which elaborate white decorations prevailed, with imitation bells in red hanging from the chandellers. In the lable service were many bits of sliverware which had been helridoms in the family for over a century.

After dinner a programme of musical numbers, recitations and violin selections was rendered, filling up the evening until nearly midnight, when the party disbanded.

The wedding ceremony of Mr. and Mrs.
